SPUNTINO WITH MENABREA & CELEBRATE THE ART OF SNACKING!

Stuzzichino, Merenda, Spuntino... Oh My! More filling than an aperitivo and lighter than antipasto, Spuntino describes a quick bite, a little taste...a nosh (in Yiddish!)

To snack is a universal concept but what it means and how you say it varies as greatly as the flavors one may choose to enjoy! From a Ciccheto in Venice to a P'zle in coastal Ionian Puglia "a snack" stretches to accommodate local flavors and specialties that excite the palate!

Beginning this July, the "Spuntino with Menabrea" series launches across the US and invites our friends to celebrate the art of snacking! Throughout the series we'll encourage the creativity of regional chefs and consumers alike to engage their taste buds and design their ideal Spuntino to pair with Menabrea Lagers.
