

Banville Wine Merchants' Spirits Portfolio Garners Critical Acclaim at the Distinguished Barleycorn Awards

New York, New York—July 18th 2023 - Four producers from the Banville Wine Merchants' Spirits Portfolio have received awards from the esteemed 2023 Barleycorn Awards. We are pleased to announce the results:

Casoni Amaro del Ciclista - Double Gold

Casoni 1814 L'Aperitivo - Gold

Casoni Amaro - Silver

Oscar.697 Bianco Vermouth - Gold

Oscar.697 Rosso Vermouth - Gold

Piùcinque Gin - Double Gold

Ambrosia Gin - Silver

Congratulations to our spirits' partners on this significant achievement!

The John Barleycorn Society was established by a group of spirits journalists in order to recognize and celebrate excellence across the entire industry. These journalists dedicated several years to developing a comprehensive competition, which eventually became known as the John Barleycorn Awards. A highly skilled team of respected and influential spirits journalists was carefully chosen to oversee the main part of the Awards, the blind tasting. This component was intended to become the leading industry authority in evaluating the taste, quality, and character of spirits.

###

About Banville Wine Merchants

Banville Wine Merchants is a female owned National Importer of fine wine, artisanal beer and craft spirits with Wholesale companies in New York, New Jersey, Washington DC, Virginia and Oregon. Founded in 2004 with deep roots in Italy, today Banville Wine Merchants represents meticulously selected wineries and distilleries from top producing regions around the world that share a common belief in integrity, quality, authenticity and family. For more information please visit www.BanvilleWine.com.

Press Contact:

Christina Comito -- Public Relations and Brand Strategy

Banville Wine Merchants

Christina@BanvilleWine.com