

“WHERE THE MEDITERRANEAN AND THE ALPS SHAKE HANDS.”

– Marjan Simčič, owner and winemaker

Domaine Marjan Simčič straddles the Italian-Slovenian border with vineyards in both countries. The winery is located in Ceglo, Slovenia, literally just a few meters from the border. You can see Italy from one side of the terrace of the winery and Slovenia from the other. The exquisite wines of Domaine Marjan Simčič are now available in the USA from Banville Wine Merchants.
