

GIACOMO GRIMALDI

Congratulations to the Grimaldi team! Amazing scores from James Suckling that are currently online at www.jamessuckling.com.

Reviewed September 23rd, 2015

Giacomo Grimaldi Barolo DOCG 2011

91 points

"A Barolo with chewy tannins and plenty of fresh plum and bark aromas and flavors. Full body, austere finish. Needs time to soften. Better in 2017." -J.S.

Giacomo Grimaldi Barolo Le Coste DOCG 2011

95 points

"I like it when Barolo has a ripe peach undertone to it. This one also has roses, berries and flowers. Full-bodied, yet tight and compacted. Tannic. Give it a year or two to soften. Better in 2017." -J.S.

Giacomo Grimaldi Barolo Sotto Castello di Novello DOCG 2011

97 points

"An opulent style of 2011 with dried fruit verging on prunes, dried flowers and licorice. Violets too. Full-bodied, chewy and very powerful. Long, long finish. Fruit and tar aftertaste. Great wine. Better in 2019." -J.S.