

Donatella Cinelli Colombini

Congratulations to Donatella Cinelli Colombini and her team on the score for their Brunello di Montalcino 2011 on Vinous!

Brunello di Montalcino DOCG 2011

91 points

“The 2011 Brunello di Montalcino is plump and juicy, with plenty of the textural resonance and openness that is such a signature of the year. Open-knit and juicy, the 2011 is already quite expressive. As always, the house style favors a forward expression of fruit, which is exactly what readers will find here. Succulent dark cherry, plum, mocha, spice and new leather meld into the supple, inviting finish. This is an absolutely delicious, early drinking Brunello from Donatella Cinelli Colombini.” -Ian D’Agata
