HOT WINES

These are the most exciting discoveries from our editors' most recent tastings, published exclusively in Wine Spectator Insider. They are high-scoring wines from around the world that may be difficult to find, but are worth seeking out.

Brunello di Montalcino Riserva 2010

97 points

“There are plenty of bass notes here, augmented by plum, licorice, spice and chocolate hints, along with cherry and floral flavors. The solid structure suggests this will age at a glacial pace, though the long aftertaste indicates a lot of future pleasure. Shows excellent balance and harmony overall. Best from 2019 through 2036. From Italy.” —B.S

And a great rating for the 2011 Prime Donne:

Brunello di Montalcino Prime Donne 2011

93 points

“Rich, ripe and bursting with plum, black cherry, licorice, soy, spice and earthy flavors. Shows the flesh of the vintage and a long, fresh aftertaste. Best from 2018 through 2029.” —B.S
