RIESLING

CUVÉE DES COMTES D'EGUISHEIM 2014

"The 2014 Riesling Grand Cru Pfersigberg Comtes d'Eguisheim opens with a very clear and subtle bouquet with dried citrus flavors, fresh pineapples, and a nice purity and elegance on the nose. On the palate the 2014 shows a good concentration of ripe white peaches along with the tension-filled structure and salinity of the brown soil on sandstone marls. Bone dry (2.5 grams of residual sugar), this is a pure and elegant, finessed and well-balanced Riesling that will be a great wine with raw fish in a couple of years." - Stephan Reinhardt (March 2017)
