TERLANO WINKL SAUVIGNON BLANC ALTO ADIGE TERLANO DOC 2024

"This is Sauvignon Blanc's cool older sibling who moved to the mountains and got really into rock climbing. Fresh white peach and lime zest lead the way, but it's the underlying mineral tension that keeps you coming back. There's this crystalline purity that feels like drinking straight from an alpine spring, but with enough flesh on its bones to keep things interesting. It's the kind of wine that makes you crave seafood, or just another glass."
