

CANTINA TERLANO ALTO ADIGE DOC GRIES LAGREIN RISERVA 2019

“Brimming with forest-berry and damson-plum aromas, this is a very vivid and expressive red wine, in spite of its ripeness. The substantial, moderately dry tannins still need some time to completely harmonize, but there’s so much good fruit in here. Long finish with stacks of cocoa-powder and dried-sage character. Drinkable now, but best from 2024.” - Stuart Pigott (May 2022)
