COPERTINO PRIMITIVO SALENTO IGT 2020

"An umami and earthy nose offers aromas of new leather, balsamic and top soil, but also a saline freshness. The palate brings more earth and salt, which fit well within the structure provided by lean tannins, but also the energy of tart blackberries, spicy pepper and a blast of acid. Another fantastic deal from this cooperative that sets a high bar for Pugliese wine." - Danielle Callegari (October 2024)
