

Altrosero

Zinfandel Sonoma Valley

Altrosero Zinfandel is bold, balanced, and mineral-forward, with spice and herb notes that take CEO Alex back to her roots in Puerto Rico where the cuisine is influenced by a diverse range of flavors from Spain, Africa, and the native Taínos.

"It's my hope that by incorporating flavors and aromas that represent my own history, those who open these bottles with friends will be inspired to look forward to the future, and toast to long-awaited togetherness." -Alex Schrecengost

Farming: Fruit all sourced from sustainably grown vineyards that employ organic farming practices.

Vineyard Location/ AVA: Sonoma County

Pest Management: No Spray; Environmentally friendly, sustainable and organic is their mission.

Grape varieties : Zinfandel

Altitude : 50m - 150m ASL

Soil : Hillsides are primarily volcanic rock while the valley floor soils are mostly sandy loam

Tasting notes :

The wine is expressive on the nose, with notes of fresh thyme, plum, allspice, raspberry bramble, and cherry. The intensity and lush texture on the palate are balanced by juicy acidity, drawn out by a long velvety finish.
