Côte de Nuits-Village Aux Montagnes

Aux Montagnes is a village appellation that extends from Corgoloin to Fixin in the Côte de Nuits region of the Côte-d'Or. This terroir tends to produce generous, fruit-forward wines.

Fermentation: The grapes are partially or entirely destemmed and fermented in temperature-controlled stainless steel vats.

Aging: Oak barrels of 228 liters for 18 months.

Grape varieties : Pinot Noir

Vineyard age : 41

Grape yield : 42 hl/hc

Exposure : East

Soil : Clay-limestone

Alcohol : 13.2%

Tasting notes :
Intense garnet color with hints of purple. There is an aromatic intensity with aromas of ripe cherry and notes of raspberry. Supple and round on the palate with well-integrated tannins.
