

Terlano

Gewürztraminer Alto Adige DOC

The grape Gewürztraminer derives its name from the town of Tramin, which is located just 20 km from Terlano in Alto Adige. Fermented dry in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks, this wine is known for its exotic fruit and spice aromas.

Grape varieties : Gewürztraminer

Altitude : 300-400m ASL

Exposure : South/Southwest

Soil : Sandy, easy warming up porphyric-gravel

Alcohol : 14%

Tasting notes :

The color of this wine is a light straw-yellow with an intense aromatic bouquet, underlined with a soft pleasant floral scent. Dry and medium-bodied on the palate with well-balanced acidity and beautiful minerality. A delicious match with spicy foods and Asian cuisine.

Press Notes

The Wine Advocate

2020, 2019, 2015	92 points
2018, 2017	91 points

James Suckling

2021, 2018, 2012, 2017 2019	92 points 93 points
-----------------------------------	------------------------

AG Vinous

2016	91 points
------	-----------

