

Terlano

Gewürztraminer Tradition Alto Adige DOC

The grape Gewürztraminer derives its name from the town of Tramin, which is located just 20 km from Terlano in Alto Adige. Fermented dry in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks, this wine is known for its exotic fruit and spice aromas.

Grape varieties : Gewürztraminer

Altitude : 300-400m ASL

Exposure : South/Southwest

Soil : Sandy, easy warming up porphyric-gravel

Alcohol : 14%

Tasting notes :

The color of this wine is a light straw-yellow with an intense aromatic bouquet, underlined with a soft pleasant floral scent. Dry and medium-bodied on the palate with well-balanced acidity and beautiful minerality. A delicious match with spicy foods and Asian cuisine.

Press Notes

The Wine Advocate

2021, 2018, 2017 91 points

2020, 2019, 2015 92 points

James Suckling

2021, 2018, 92 points

2012, 2017 2019 93 points

AG Vinous

2016 91 points

