

Lunae

Liguria di Levante IGT Labianca Bianco

White as the marble mountains that outline the landscape of the ancient and white city of Luni. White as the soul of this wine, delicate and persuasive, fresh with summer aromas, the result of a harmonious encounter of two vines that have always been cultivated in this place: the Vermentino vine, the symbol of our territory, and the generous Malvasia.

Denomination: Liguria di Levante IGT Bianco

Grapes: Vermentino, Malvasia

Territory: Piana di Luni

Vinification: Fermentation at controlled temperature in steel, aging on the fine lees in steel for approximately 4 months.

Grape varieties : Vermentino, Malvasia

Alcohol : 12.5%

Tasting notes :

Aromas of Mediterranean scrub and ripe fruit. Harmonious, warm, salty with a long finish.
