Clean-Green-Authentic. Koha is a gift from our home, to you. The range epitomizes the relaxed yet refined Kiwi lifestyle, espousing the values and quality of one of the cleanest, greenest and most beautiful places in the world. It is one of the few genuine indigenous Māori wine brands available in the USA today. With sustainability at the core of the Koha philosophy, a lighter and more environmentally friendly bottle allows for a reduced carbon footprint and the continued preservation of our world for future generations. Koha's distinctive Pacific-style label design featuring the silver fern holds strong cultural meaning and evokes all of the beauty of our perfectly formed Antipodean home. Koha Wines are carefully crafted by our winemaker, Haysley MacDonald whose family has called the Wairau Valley home for 800 years. Nestled near the bottom of the globe, Marlborough is located on the north-east side of the country's South Island. With high sunshine hours, cool nights, and a sea breeze to regulate temperatures, Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc is renowned for its crisp, refreshing, citrusy flavors and lingering finish. Pinot Noir from the area is also becoming increasingly popular; boasting bright red berry notes, fine tannins, and a touch of savory herbs, Marlborough Pinot Noir is a surprising treat from this South Pacific cool-climate nation. Through the Koha range of wines, you will experience the proud spirit of hospitality that Aotearoa-New Zealand is known for. Generous, thoughtful, and carefully considered, Koha represents the shared trust and respect between host, and guest - making these wines perfect to enjoy at home, when out at your favorite restaurant, or as a gift.
