Cantinae Clara C' is owned by Clara Carpenè and focuses mainly on the production of premier sparkling wines from the Conegliano Valdobbiadene region of the Veneto in Italy. The name Fiori di Prosecco (or Prosecco Flowers) is a trademarked brand name that only CANTINAE CLARA C can use. It means that only the best grapes of Glera - from the heart of the Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore area and Treviso province - can be called "Fiori di Prosecco". The Conegliano Valdobbiadene D.O.C.G. located near Treviso, in the Veneto region of Italy, is the ideal place to plant Glera and the Prosecco wines that are produced in this region have a natural richness and the signature aromas of acacia flowers and rose petals.
