Pinot Noir Los Primeros

La Follette is focused on crafting benchmark expressions of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from vineyard sites in Sonoma and Mendocino County. The wines are produced and bottled at the Quivira Winery in Healdsburg under the watchful eye of Hugh Chappelle. Whereas the ethos of Quivira is about wines from their Estate Vineyards, La Follette seeks out the best sites and growers for small lot Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. Winemaker Hugh Chappelle has an amazing pedigree with over 20 years experience in making luxury tier Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from Sonoma County. Prior to taking the reins at Quivira in 2010, Hugh made the wines at Lynmar Estate and before that, Flowers. Under the ownership of Pete and Terri Kight, the same couple behind Quivira Vineyards, La Follette is dedicated to maintaining long term partnerships with the best farmers and vineyard managers working in the most storied AVAs in Sonoma County. The result are amazing expressions of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir that truly speak of place.
