"Our vision is to produce authentic, sustainable wines that show the great character and finesse of the Adelaide Hills." - Michael Downer
Murdoch Hill is a small family owned and operated wine business located in the Adelaide Hills of South Australia. The vineyards are farmed with sensitive sustainable farming practices at their core. With the belief that healthy, happy plants produce the best quality wine, no synthetic inputs to control pests, weeds or disease, utilizing mechanical under vine weeding to control weeds and organic sprays to control disease.

Owner : The Downer Family
