Sonoma, California

Products

BonAnno Vintners has been family-owned since 2004, focusing on fruit-focused wines from California vineyards. Matt Bonanno's family background in the distribution, food, and wine industries influences his passion for wine. He cut his teeth in the industry early in life and his story is the BonAnno Wine Story. For winemaking, BonAnno turned to Jim Milone, a North Coast native with deep-rooted ties to the region. A fourth-generation winemaker, Jim's knowledge and expertise covers more than forty years of experience and encompasses a true 'grape to glass' philosophy. Together Matt and Jim have forged long-standing partnerships with dedicated growers. These relationships allow them to ensure that their winemaking philosophy can be carried out in every stage of production - within the vineyards and winery. They aspire to create wines that not only display excellent craftsmanship and varietal accuracy but also consistently exceed expectations in terms of value. BonAnno's Napa heritage, coupled with its unique fruit-forward, well-structured style, speaks to today's wine enthusiast and Matthew Fritz by Bonanno Vintners is crafted to deliver the best of coastal California in every bottle.
