Bourgogne Hautes Côtes de Nuits

Officially created in 1961, the appellation covers sixteen villages of the Hautes Côtes in the Côte-d'Or as well as parts of four villages of the Côte de Nuits. The dividing line with the Hautes Côtes de Beaune, passes through Magny-lès Villers.

Grape varieties Pinot Noir

Soil Clay and limestone

Alcohol 13%

Tasting notes

Good aromatic intensity with aromas of red fruits with notes of blackcurrant. Supple and round on the palate with well integrated tannins. A good match with spicy dishes and cheeses.
