

Red Tail Ridge

Dry Rosé

Appellation: Finger Lakes AVA
To Note: Red Tail Ridge is the first LEED-certified green winery in New York.

Grape varieties 58% Zweigelt, 42% Cabernet Franc

Soil Glacial till, Siltstone

Alcohol 11.4%

Tasting notes

Aromatic and immediately inviting, with orange oil, wild strawberry, and fresh passion fruit lifted by a cool whisper of mint and petrichor. The palate is bright and focused — Bing cherry, pomegranate, and a hint of watermelon balanced by savory notes of fennel and celery leaf. Dry, seamlessly integrated, and satisfyingly full on the finish.

Banville
Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Red Tail Ridge

Dry Rosé

Appellation: Finger Lakes AVA
To Note: Red Tail Ridge is the first LEED-certified green winery in New York.

Grape varieties 58% Zweigelt, 42% Cabernet Franc

Soil Glacial till, Siltstone

Alcohol 11.4%

Tasting notes

Aromatic and immediately inviting, with orange oil, wild strawberry, and fresh passion fruit lifted by a cool whisper of mint and petrichor. The palate is bright and focused — Bing cherry, pomegranate, and a hint of watermelon balanced by savory notes of fennel and celery leaf. Dry, seamlessly integrated, and satisfyingly full on the finish.

Banville
Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Red Tail Ridge

Dry Rosé

Appellation: Finger Lakes AVA
To Note: Red Tail Ridge is the first LEED-certified green winery in New York.

Grape varieties 58% Zweigelt, 42% Cabernet Franc

Soil Glacial till, Siltstone

Alcohol 11.4%

Tasting notes

Aromatic and immediately inviting, with orange oil, wild strawberry, and fresh passion fruit lifted by a cool whisper of mint and petrichor. The palate is bright and focused — Bing cherry, pomegranate, and a hint of watermelon balanced by savory notes of fennel and celery leaf. Dry, seamlessly integrated, and satisfyingly full on the finish.

Banville
Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Red Tail Ridge

Dry Rosé

Appellation: Finger Lakes AVA
To Note: Red Tail Ridge is the first LEED-certified green winery in New York.

Grape varieties 58% Zweigelt, 42% Cabernet Franc

Soil Glacial till, Siltstone

Alcohol 11.4%

Tasting notes

Aromatic and immediately inviting, with orange oil, wild strawberry, and fresh passion fruit lifted by a cool whisper of mint and petrichor. The palate is bright and focused — Bing cherry, pomegranate, and a hint of watermelon balanced by savory notes of fennel and celery leaf. Dry, seamlessly integrated, and satisfyingly full on the finish.

Banville
Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com