

Donatella Cinelli Colombini - Fattoria del Colle

Cenerentola DOC Orcia

The DOC Orcia wine region was created in 2000 in Tuscany between the Brunello di Montalcino and Vino Nobile regions. There are similarities between the wine and the young woman in the fairy tale: both have two stepsisters, more famous and richer than them, and in the case of the Cenerentola DOC Orcia they are two neighboring wine regions for the Brunello and Nobile wines.

Grape varieties 65% Sangiovese Grosso, 35% Foglia Tonda

Altitude 400 m ASL

Soil Calcareous clay

Alcohol 14.5%

Tasting notes

Harmonious and elegant. The structure is velvety, well balanced with fruit and promises a long-lasting, delicious finish.
