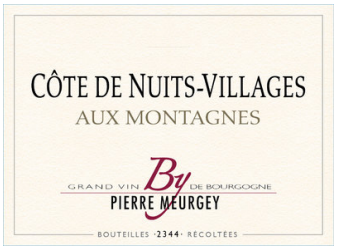
Côte de Nuits-Village Aux Montagnes

Aux Montagnes is a village appellation that extends from Corgoloin to Fixin in the Côte de Nuits region of the Côte-d'Or. This terroir tends to produce generous, fruit-forward wines.
Fermentation: This wine is vinified in temperature-controlled stainless steel vats.
Aging: Oak barrels of 228 liters for 18 months.



Grape varieties Pinot Noir

Soil Clay-limestone

Alcohol 13.2%

Tasting notes
Intense garnet color with hints of purple. There is an aromatic intensity with aromas of ripe cherry and notes of raspberry. Supple and round on the palate with well-integrated tannins.
