

Domaine Clos de la Chapelle

Volnay 1er Cru En Carelle

The Volnay appellation is found mid-slope in the Côte de Beaune, with Pommard to the north and Meursault to the south. Dr. Lavalley listed this vineyard in his 1855 classifications as a "Tête de Cuvée", meaning one of the best of the commune.

Grape varieties Pinot Noir

Soil Well-drained, limestone-rich soil

Alcohol 13.6%

Tasting notes

Deep ruby color with light garnet hues. Finesse and elegance on the nose, with aromas of small red ripe fruits, exotic spices and violets, with a touch of minerality. The palate is full and round, with a generous finish. Delicate and velvety tannins, with nice acidity and length on the finish.
