

Saintsbury

Chardonnay Sangiacomo Vineyards Carneros

Vineyards: The Sangiacomo family have been farming in Sonoma for over 100 years, and Saintsbury has been making wines with them for nearly 40 of those years. Well known for their attention to detail, the result is a complex and vibrant Chardonnay.

SANGIACOMO VINEYARDS
CHARDONNAY
CARNEROS

Grape varieties Chardonnay

Soil Loam and clay soils

Alcohol 13.5%

Tasting notes

Zesty notes of lime, kumquats and green pineapple, with powdered lily aromas. On the palate this wine is energetic from the start with tangy citrus, white peach and cloves.

Banville
Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Saintsbury

Chardonnay Sangiacomo Vineyards Carneros

Vineyards: The Sangiacomo family have been farming in Sonoma for over 100 years, and Saintsbury has been making wines with them for nearly 40 of those years. Well known for their attention to detail, the result is a complex and vibrant Chardonnay.

SANGIACOMO VINEYARDS
CHARDONNAY
CARNEROS

Grape varieties Chardonnay

Soil Loam and clay soils

Alcohol 13.5%

Tasting notes

Zesty notes of lime, kumquats and green pineapple, with powdered lily aromas. On the palate this wine is energetic from the start with tangy citrus, white peach and cloves.

Banville
Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Saintsbury

Chardonnay Sangiacomo Vineyards Carneros

Vineyards: The Sangiacomo family have been farming in Sonoma for over 100 years, and Saintsbury has been making wines with them for nearly 40 of those years. Well known for their attention to detail, the result is a complex and vibrant Chardonnay.

SANGIACOMO VINEYARDS
CHARDONNAY
CARNEROS

Grape varieties Chardonnay

Soil Loam and clay soils

Alcohol 13.5%

Tasting notes

Zesty notes of lime, kumquats and green pineapple, with powdered lily aromas. On the palate this wine is energetic from the start with tangy citrus, white peach and cloves.

Banville
Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Saintsbury

Chardonnay Sangiacomo Vineyards Carneros

Vineyards: The Sangiacomo family have been farming in Sonoma for over 100 years, and Saintsbury has been making wines with them for nearly 40 of those years. Well known for their attention to detail, the result is a complex and vibrant Chardonnay.

SANGIACOMO VINEYARDS
CHARDONNAY
CARNEROS

Grape varieties Chardonnay

Soil Loam and clay soils

Alcohol 13.5%

Tasting notes

Zesty notes of lime, kumquats and green pineapple, with powdered lily aromas. On the palate this wine is energetic from the start with tangy citrus, white peach and cloves.

Banville
Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com