Colli di Luni Rosso DOC Niccolò V

Colli di Luni is one of the few DOC appellations that straddles over two regions: the easternmost part Liguria (La Spezia) and neighboring coastal Tuscany (Massa Carrara). This is a gorgeous, elegant wine made in honor of Niccolò V, the Pope that was born in the town of Sarzana, near the winery.

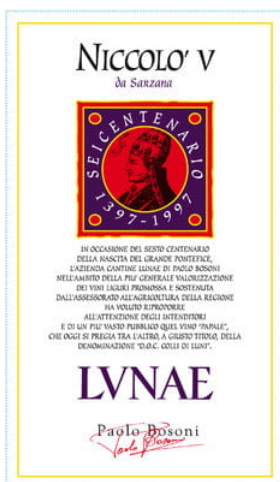

Grape varieties 70% Sangiovese, 15% Pollera Nera, 15% Merlot

Soil Stony, rich texture

Alcohol 13.5%

Tasting notes

Ruby red in color with purple hues, Niccolò V is intense on the nose with hints of blackcurrant and cherry, accented by cedar and herb notes. Ripe and juicy, with a long, savory finish. Pair this wine with rich first courses and meat dishes.
