

Pierre Meurgey

Pernand-Vergelesses Blanc

Pernand-Vergelesses is tucked into the junction of two valleys among the hills of the Côte de Beaune. The nearby Hill of Corton stands guard over it and two other villages, Aloxe-Corton and Ladoix-Serrigny, harboring prestigious Grands Crus: Corton in red and Corton-Charlemagne in white.

Grape varieties Chardonnay

Soil Clay and limestone

Alcohol 13%

Tasting notes

White gold robe with golden tints. Vibrant nose of fruits with white flesh (peach, apricot), with floral notes with a mineral touch. Fresh and frank attack on the palate. Long mineral finish.
