Pala

Centosere Cannonau di Sardegna DOC

Cannonau is the main red grape variety of Sardegna. Thanks to international university studies, its ancient island origin is certain, just as it belongs to the Grenache family, with which it shares part of its DNA. Cannonau is a son of Sardegna: proud, strong, and determined, but, at the same time, kind and elegant.

Grape varieties Cannonau

Altitude 150 - 180m ASL

Soil Calcareous

Tasting notes

Vibrant and exuberant notes of ripe red fruits on the nose. Dry and smooth on the palate with good structure and length. Ideal pairings include charcuterie, roasted poultry, and lean red meat, as well as medium-aged cheeses.

Banville Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Pala

Centosere Cannonau di Sardegna DOC

Cannonau is the main red grape variety of Sardegna. Thanks to international university studies, its ancient island origin is certain, just as it belongs to the Grenache family, with which it shares part of its DNA. Cannonau is a son of Sardegna: proud, strong, and determined, but, at the same time, kind and elegant.

Grape varieties Cannonau

Altitude 150 - 180m ASL

Soil Calcareous

Tasting notes

Vibrant and exuberant notes of ripe red fruits on the nose. Dry and smooth on the palate with good structure and length. Ideal pairings include charcuterie, roasted poultry, and lean red meat, as well as medium-aged cheeses.

Banville Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Pala

Centosere Cannonau di Sardegna DOC

Cannonau is the main red grape variety of Sardegna. Thanks to international university studies, its ancient island origin is certain, just as it belongs to the Grenache family, with which it shares part of its DNA. Cannonau is a son of Sardegna: proud, strong, and determined, but, at the same time, kind and elegant.

Grape varieties Cannonau

Altitude 150 - 180m ASL

Soil Calcareous

Tasting notes

Vibrant and exuberant notes of ripe red fruits on the nose. Dry and smooth on the palate with good structure and length. Ideal pairings include charcuterie, roasted poultry, and lean red meat, as well as medium-aged cheeses.

Banville Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com

Pala

Centosere Cannonau di Sardegna DOC

Cannonau is the main red grape variety of Sardegna. Thanks to international university studies, its ancient island origin is certain, just as it belongs to the Grenache family, with which it shares part of its DNA. Cannonau is a son of Sardegna: proud, strong, and determined, but, at the same time, kind and elegant.

Grape varieties Cannonau

Altitude 150 - 180m ASL

Soil Calcareous

Tasting notes

Vibrant and exuberant notes of ripe red fruits on the nose. Dry and smooth on the palate with good structure and length. Ideal pairings include charcuterie, roasted poultry, and lean red meat, as well as medium-aged cheeses.

Banville Wine Merchants

www.banvillewine.com