

Murdoch Hill

'The Landau' Syrah

GI: Adelaide Hills (Mount Lofty Ranges, South Australia)
Site(s): Estate vineyard
Each single vineyard wine is named after a horse-drawn carriage (Michael's grandfather was an avid collector). The Landau takes its name from a very special carriage with facing seats and often a low shell to give maximum visibility of the occupants and their clothing, a popular choice for royalty.

Grape varieties Syrah

Altitude 420m ASL

Soil Sandy loam over clay

Alcohol 13%

Tasting notes

Varietally-correct syrah on a soft and supple, yet powerful, body. Red and purple fruits of Davidson plum (a tart native plum), boysenberry, and black cherry. This wine is briary, filled with white pepper and kangaroo leather. Medium weight, with a silky texture, pepper, spice, and game. Open knit, complex, and highly drinkable.
